

Chinnor Woods by Anne Peake (acrylic on canvas)

This painting is very close to the heart of the Special Trees and Woods project; it portrays Chinnor Wood, a stone's throw away from the project's offices! The painting captures the woods near sunset, and depicts perfectly the dappling of the light through the trees and the glorious colours of the end of the summer.