

Wood and Design by Christine Lock (creative wood and card book)

Christine Lock is a printer and book-maker – forever pushing the boundaries in the making of creative books. Christine was given a sliver of wood which she inserted into card and decorated to create a tree design. The book also includes printed woodland on natural paper and a design of poplars which are on the edge of the wood.