Chilterns pre-historic features – distribution map courtesy English Heritage
SECTION OF NORTH DEFENCES

SECTION CONTINUED A FURTHER 26 FT.

FALLEN RAMPART MATERIAL
PROJECTED POST-HOLES OF RAMPART REVETMENT

BLACK HUMUS
BROWN LOAM
POWDERED CHALK
CHALK RUBBLE

Feet
Metres
Figure 24: Drawing by Oliver Jessop of the Wilburton-type Bronze Age sword recovered from Ivinghoe Beacon.
Ivinghoe Beacon,
Ivinghoe, Buckinghamshire

ENGLISH HERITAGE

50  0  50  100 metres

- hillfort
- barrows
- settlement - streets
- settlement - house platforms
- ?midden
- trackways
- ?quarrying
- platform
- erosion
- excavation trenches
- trig pillar
- observation post
Icknield

Dykes?

Cross ridge dykes

Medieval terraces

Icknield Way

B B B B B

Cross ridge dykes

Hill

Livinghoe Beacon

Dykes?
Bronze Age barrows
Iron Age features

- Hillfort
- cemetery
- Grim's Ditch
- Icknield Way
- Cross ridge dykes
Finney – theoretical sling shot trajectories
1. Small change chest
2. Space about 10 ft. from back
3. Shaft about 36 in. from rear

Note: These notes are preliminary and may need to be revised.