Section 2
Sonning Common to Ipsden
12.9km (8.0 miles) Route profile page 50

This stretch will take you through classic Chilterns scenery dominated by beech woodlands and narrow sunken lanes with high-sided banks. As one nears Ipsden views over the Oxfordshire vale are breath taking.

Route information: Once you have left Sonning Common behind the route is on very quiet lanes. Garsons Hill is long, steep and narrow.

Amenities and Attractions

1  Stoke Row
Stoke Row is surrounded by woodland and quiet lanes. With its pub and village store, it is a popular refuelling stop for cyclists.
Amongst its attractions is the Maharajah’s Well, an amazing gift from an Indian prince. The well is free to visit and is clearly visible from the main street.
The Cherry Tree pub is in the heart of the village and has a restaurant, large garden and B&B accommodation.
Tel. 01491 680430

2  Checkendon
Another delightful place to stop is the village of Checkendon with its Norman church, village green, post office shop and two traditional English pubs.
The Black Horse is a time-warp, tucked away in the woods down a narrow lane. Tel. 01491 680418
The Four Horse Shoes is another pretty pub near the centre of the village. Tel. 01491 680325

3  Braziers Park
An unusual place to stay with lots of character. The manor house has large grounds, offers B&B and camping and can cater for groups. It has been home to some famous people, including author Ian Flemming and singer Marianne Faithful. Some episodes of Midsomer Murders have been filmed there.
Tel. 01491 680221

4  Ipsden
Small village in fabulous rural setting, with a post office shop.
The King William is a charming country pub perched on a hill just outside the village with stunning views of the surrounding countryside. Tel. 01491 681845
This stretch will take you through classic Chilterns scenery dominated by beech woodlands and narrow sunken lanes with high-sided banks. As one nears Ipsden views over the Oxfordshire vale are breathtaking.

Route information:

Once you have left Sonning Common behind the route is on very quiet lanes. Garsons Hill is long, steep and narrow.

Stoke Row

Stoke Row is surrounded by woodland and quiet lanes. With its pub and village store, it is a popular refuelling stop for cyclists.

Amongst its attractions is the Maharajah’s Well, an amazing gift from an Indian prince. The well is free to visit and is clearly visible from the main street.

The Cherry Tree pub is in the heart of the village and has a restaurant, large garden and B&B accommodation. Tel. 01491 680430

Checkendon

Another delightful place to stop is the village of Checkendon with its Norman church, village green, post office shop and two traditional English pubs. The Black Horse is a time-warp, tucked away in the woods down a narrow lane. Tel. 01491 680418

The Four Horse Shoes is another pretty pub near the centre of the village. Tel. 01491 680325

Ipsden

Small village in fabulous rural setting, with a post office shop.

Braziers Park

An unusual place to stay with lots of character. The manor house has large grounds, offers B&B and camping and can cater for groups. It has been home to some famous people, including author Ian Flemming and singer Marianne Faithful. Some episodes of Midsomer Murders have been filmed there. Tel. 01491 680221

The King William is a charming country pub perched on a hill just outside the village with stunning views of the surrounding countryside. Tel. 01491 681845

Route continued on following page

Amenities and Attractions

1

2

3

4

12.9km (8.0 miles)  Route profile page 50

Views from the King William PH. Wellplace