EJ Lacey & Sons	Lane End	£7,958.00	£19,895.00	9/1/2021	3/31/2022	Funding towards a new seed drill to enable this mixed dairy rotational farm to move to a minimum till system which will reduce disturbance to the soil structure, reduce compaction, increase soil organic matter and reduce reliance on external inputs. The drill will allow the introduction of more legumes, herbal leys and cover crops with benefits for soil conservation and pollinating insects. The use of the drill (as part of a regenerative farming approach) will also be explained in farm walks/talks and on social media.
Earl & Countess Howe, Penn House Estate	Amersham	£45,000.00	£113,280.00	10/1/2021	3/31/2022	The aim of this project is to help ensure the future of farming on the Penn Estate through better management of the soils. The purchase of a direct drill will enable more carbon sequestration, improved fertility and better soil resilience as well as acting as a showcase for other farmers to learn from by sharing best practice. Signage will also help the public learn about what the estate and the farming industry as a whole can do to reduce the effects of climate change and protect the Chilterns landscape. The drill will enable cover crop and companion crop sowing and will also enable productive crops to be sown into standing cover crops without the need for deep cultivation.
